Kannapolis Church of Christ

The Eyes To See And The Ears To Hear Truth

Jesus was a threat to the Pharisees so they wanted to kill him. He spoke the truth that needed to be heard and believed and he did the good works that needed to be seen and followed. Now, Jesus never spoke out of a rash reaction or a hateful spirit. He knew the truth of what he said before he spoke a word. He was thoughtful, deliberate, and loving. He did not speak in an offensive manner. Yet, he did not hesitate to speak the truth though the truth itself might offend those who did not want to hear it.

The truth will always offend if we do not want hear it or we are guilty in its presence. Yet, we should not be unwilling to speak the truth because it might offend or we might be misunderstood. May we always have the heart to speak the truth. May we always have the spirit to speak it thoughtfully and deliberately. May we always be of a mind to heed the truth even if the truth itself first offends us. May we always have the eyes that will see the truth and the ears that will hear the truth.

I will tell you here that the truth is not always easy for me to see and hear. Yet, we all must moved passed that roadblock. Salvation is only in what is the truth and not what we want it to be.
