

The Porch 2

(Luke 15:16-31)

Introduction

- He leaves home to make his own way.
- His attempts to do it his own way, fail miserably.
- Our intended destination rarely works out.

There is safety on the porch.

Rehearsal does not equal return.

- Good intentions...
- We rehearse the steps but never take the first one.

We want to settle for the servant, when the Father wants sons!

- We realize our unworthiness.
- We rationalize that we can work it out.
- We resolve to fix it.
- (John 1:12)

You will return home...

- When you realize that is the only true place you are loved.
- When your own way never fills the void.
- When you realize that you don't serve to be a son, you were a son first.

Conclusion

- Come back to the porch.
